

Litigation Finance Firm Seeking Intern

We are seeking an intern to join our fast-paced team for the fall semester. This is an excellent opportunity to gain hands-on experience in the rapidly growing litigation finance industry. This is a paid internship, but compensation will be tracked to objective deliverables.

Key Responsibilities:

- Design and execute a distribution plan to reach potential plaintiffs
- Assist in building financial models to determine case values and return on investment
- Participate in investment committee meetings and case strategy sessions
- Support the team on various special projects and assignments

Qualifications:

- Excellent academic record
- Strong financial analysis skills
- Ability to research and analyze complex issues
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- High attention to detail and strong work ethic
- Interest in finance, investments, and the legal industry

This internship offers the opportunity to be fully immersed in the deal structuring and portfolio management functions of a litigation finance firm.

To apply, please email a resume detailing your interest and qualifications to sss2324@columbia.edu

Students with backgrounds in finance, business, economics, pre-law or related disciplines are encouraged to apply.
